

The 8th NSW China Day Scholarship

The 8th NJ Chinese Festival Scholarship

The NSW China Day Scholarship was established in 2014 by the Chairman, Ms. Luo Hui Lin, and funded by myself, as well as enthusiastic friends, to encourage and help more Chinese students to receive higher education, Actively participate in the dissemination of Chinese culture, to contribute to the heritage of China's culture, and to encourage Chinese descendants to participate in political interest and participation.

Application time for the 8th NSW China Day Scholarship:

Sunday 24 October 2021 to Sunday 21 November 2021

2021 set a total of 12 scholarships, 10 freshman students, regardless of department; Rain a first-year political science student; Each winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship and certificate.

- Application Conditions:

- 1.) Have a Chinese background (one parent is Piper)
- (2) First year students entering university in autumn 2021
- 3) Applicants are restricted to New Jersey residents
- 4) Deadline: November 21, 2021 (Sunday), subject to postmark
- 5) Applicants must sign up and fill in the form in person. It cannot be filled in by parents

- How to apply:

1.) Eligible students should email Marglam@optonline.net Applicants should fill in their names (including Chinese and English names), address, telephone number, email address, parents' names and occupations, as well as an English biographical description of about 500 words.

- Personal Application Information:

Including application form, photo of applicant, university admission certificate, high school graduation transcript, etc. All application forms and copies should be sent by mail to: (electronic file not accepted)

Margaret Lam 88 Louis Drive, Montville, NJ 07045

The Scholarship Review Committee will evaluate the applicants fairly and fairly according to their actual conditions. Assessment Results:

-

Notification of applicants is tentatively scheduled around 23 January 2022 (Saturday).

The 8th NSW China Day Scholarship Award Ceremony will be based on the "epidemic situation" and winners will be informed by email.